Thursday, April 10. 1707.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated April 12.

Naples, March 15.

AL the French Troops that are in this Kingdom, have receiv'd Orders to hold themselves ready to embark; and French Transport-Ships are expected to carry them to Toulon or Marseilles.

Rome, March 19. Cardinal Aquaviva, who arriv'd here yesterday from Attri in the Kingdom of Naples, will make his publick Entry to Morrow, and on Thursday next will go to the Palace with a great Cavalcade to receive his Cardinal's Hat from the Pope's Hands. The Pope takes great Pains to dispose to Peace the Potentates concern'd in the present War, and has sent new Instructions on that Subject to his Nuncios at Vienna, Madrid, and Paris. The Cardinals de la Tremouille and del Giudice have been some Days at Albano, whither the Ambassadors of King Philip of Spain and of the Republick of Venice have made several Journeys to them. On Tuesday next the Affair of the double Election to the Bishoprick of Munster, will 'tis said be finally decided.

Ferrara, March 22. By express Order from Prince Eugene, all the German Troops began to retire Yesterday out of the Ecclesiastical Territories, making their March towards the Mantuan.

Trent, March 23. By Command from Prince Eugene, 7 or 800 Recruits, which arriv'd here some Days ago out of Tyrol, together with a Convoy of Stores of War, are to halt here till further Order: 'Tis thought they will be order'd to return to Austria, to be employ'd in Hungary. Since the Accomodation between the Imperialists and the French in Italy, the Price of Corn is lessen'd one Half in this Country.

Munich, March 28. The raising of Men in this Electorate for the Service of the King of Sweden is continued. The greatest part of the Ammunition that was in the Magazines in this Country, is sent down the Danube to Vienna for Hungary.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated April 8.

Paris, April 4. 'Tis given out by the Court, that our Army in the Netherlands will be more numerous and better appointed this Summer, than it has been in any of the former Campaigns; and that notwithstanding our past Disgraces our Generals will venture a general Engagement. The common Advices of the 20th of last Month from Madrid, import, that King Philip went away that Morning with the Queen to Buen-retiro, there to continue till Easter; and that there appear'd no Likelihood of his Majesty's going to the Army this Campaign. The Army commanded by the Duke of Berwick was encamp'd near Venta de Indio on the Frontier of Valencia; and that of the Enemy under the Cannon of Alicant; whence the confederate Fleet was ready to sail for Lisbon.

Falmouth, April 6. To Day pass'd by this Place Her Majesty's Ships the Falkland and Medway's Prize, with between 30 and 40 Merchant Ships under their Convoy, bound for Newfoundland. Yesterday put in here the Cornelia Dogger of Amsterdam from Bourdeaux for Rotterdam, with Wine, Edward Mullck Master. The said Master, and a French Gentleman that came over with him a Passenger, report, that in the Country within some Leagues of Bourdeaux, is a very considerable Body of Men in Arms (to the Number of no less than 30 or 40000) against the Government; that they have possess'd themselves of a Place of Strength in which are 36 Pieces of Cannon; and that having been summon'd by the Marshal de Montrevel to lay down their Arms and return to their Dwellings on Promise of Pardon, they have declar'd they will not submit on any other Terms, than on the actual Redress of the Grievances and Oppression the Government have made them suffer. The French Passenger that came over with Captain Mullock, was a considerable Merchant of Montpellier, who having taken Time to dispose of all his Effects by Degrees and remitted the Produce to Holland, so as not to have it taken Notice of, at length found Means to leave France himself.

Plymouth, April 6. To Day came in two Dutch Ships bound for Rotterdam, and a Swede for Stockholm, all three from France. To Day likewise came in the Expedition, Kingston, Woolwich, Greenwich, Portland, Severn, Deal-Castle, Lynn, Scarborough, and Dolphin, with about 40 Merchant Ships under their Convoy for the West-Indies, Virginia, &c.

Yarmouth, April 7. Yesterday pass'd through this Road about 60 Sail of light Colliers without Convoy: And this Morning pass'd through her Majesty's Sloop the Merlin with some Light Colliers under her Convoy, for Newcastle.

Deal, April 8. This Morning came in hither her Majesty's Ships the Dreadnaught, Swallow, Worcester, Bonadventure, and Flamborough, from conveying the Duke of Marlborough to Holland.

London, April 10.

The Eagle, Marlborough, and Dolphin Pacquet-Boats, sail'd from Harwich the 8th Instant at 3 in Morning, with 5 Mails for Holland.

Letters from Lisbon of the 11th of last Month, say Part of the Fleet were arriv'd there from the Mediterranean; that the Army of the Allies in Valencia consists at present of 50 Battallions and 29 Squadrons, to the Number of about 30000 Men; that the Men of 6 English Regiments are incorporated into others, and that the Officers are to come over to England to make new Levies. Those

Those Regiments are as follows, Colonel Southwell's, Brigadier Brudenell's, Lord Mohun's, Brigadier Hans Hamilton's, Colonel Allen's, and Colonel Toby Caulfields.
